The MedTech Conference is the can't-miss event where innovators from every part of the medtech industry come together to break through current limitations and showcase what they do best—put the future of health care in motion and ultimately keep patients moving.

Network with thousands of medtech professionals and discover innovative companies sharing next-level tech, explore our cutting edge education program, and connect with an incredible network of decision makers. Join us in Toronto, Canada, from October 15-17, with specialized programming on the 14th.

Join us for 4 days of education, networking, action-packed medtech campus, and partnering with thousands of medtech innovators.

EDUCATION

Enjoy hundreds of sessions and speakers dedicated to AI, digital health, imaging, patient health, and top trends across 20+ topic areas, alongside exclusive access to hundreds of company presentations.

NETWORKING

Forge invaluable connections with top and emerging companies, engaged investors, and others alongside a diverse medtech c-suite, offering unique access to thousands of partnering meetings and fun networking opportunities.

MEDTECH CAMPUS

Immerse yourself in technology showcases, live sessions like CEOs Unplugged and Patient Stories, an expanded Career Hub, Medtech in Motion Tech Hub, and special programming across three stages for start-ups and emerging companies.

The MedTech Conference is where global medtech professionals connect from all across the industry to tap into the community's strength and knowledge and pave the way for the future of health care.
